BEYOND THE SELF

Beyond the Self: An Evening with SAE Repertory Dance Company is a transformative concert showcasing our dancers' unique artistic expressions. This performance merges dance, music, and spoken word to explore the intricacies of the human journey.

Prepare for an evening of diverse performances as our young artists explore the profound impact of their art and the potential void in their lives without it. Collaborating with the faculty choreographers William Miller Jr. and Candi Spahr, they've crafted a compelling narrative that showcases their strengths and connection. Tonight's performance will also feature guest choreography from the esteemed Hasten Dance and FUSE Dance Company, adding a delightful variety to the show. Join us for an evening of celebration as we honor the transformative power of art and the unity of the artistic community.

HASTEN DANCE

Bounded by Intervals (Reprise)

Hasten Dance was founded in 2022 by Chelsea Roquero and Krystal Masteller. They are, first and foremost, friends who share a passion for collaboration and exploration. Their approach to movement is rooted in finding extreme physicality and intricacy through energetic and momentum-based techniques. By embracing these methods, they discover their most authentic voices and identities. They believe that ease and efficiency are key to unlocking greater potential in the body. Their goal is to acknowledge, incorporate, and honor the whole human self—identity, emotions, and anatomy—to foster autonomy in their creative process and the spaces they create.

A special thank you to Kaia Makihara, accompanied choreographer for “Bounded by Interval” (2024), for allowing us to share his world & choreographic work in this Restaging of the work.
